TA Fastrack Seek Best in Travel, Tourism and Hospitality Industry

Australia's number one travel, tourism and hospitality consultancy firm TA Fastrack announced this morning that they are looking for the industries best to join them as licensees. Due to the current economic downturn and the state of the industry, TA Fastrack's business and executive coaching services have been stretched to the limit and the opportunity to join Australia's best in the industry as a licensee has arisen for the first time ever.

'In these tough times for the industry, there are many highly skilled and trained people looking for a challenge and we want only the best to join our team,' said Mr. Adrian Caruso, TA Fastrack's CEO. 'If you can see yourself helping travel, tourism and hospitality business owner/ operators dramatically improve their profits and lifestyle, then this is the perfect opportunity for you.'

TA Fastrack is seeking licensees for Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, Australian Capital Territory, Western Australia, South Australia, Tasmania and the Northern Territory; and also master licensees or licensees for New Zealand, South Africa, United Kingdom, United States and in Singapore.

'Your role as a TA Fastrack Business Coach would be to help small to large travel, tourism and hospitality businesses with their sales, marketing, management, team building, direction, goal setting and much more,' said Mr. Caruso.
